LIGHTS, CAMERA, COOKIES!
COOKIE PREMIER PREPARES GIRLS FOR COOKIE SALE

Hundreds of Girl Scouts will congregate at Cottage Hill Baptist Church on Saturday, Jan. 5, from 1 p.m. - 5 p.m. for the 7th annual Cookie Premier, the official kick-off to the annual cookie sale.

Girl Scouts of Southern Alabama will roll out the red carpet and let girls shine. Girl Scouts will be transformed into cookie divas and make their own costume.

Girl Scouts in middle and high school will be invited to create a musical or movie prior to the Cookie Premier and perform it for the younger girls. Nora Ali, America's Junior Miss from Minnesota, will be performing on the violin. Ali is currently a student at Harvard University.

The theme of the 2008 cookie sale, Make It a Hit, inspired the event. Girls will not only learn about the sale, but they will get a backstage pass to create handprints for their own Hollywood star, participate in a cheer clinic and make diva sunglasses. They are also invited to dress up as their favorite Disney or musical character or a movie star for a premier fashion show.
