Address: _____

Current Girl Scout Position(s) _____ Phone #: _____

To clarify whether or not certain training hours count toward leaves, focus on how much of the training applies directly to improving work with girls. Answer the question: How has this training improved my work with girls? For example, in a course on preserving history, perhaps 10 out of 30 hours total would be applicable to helping girls with activities related to history or working with girls volunteering in the council archives. Examples of qualifying classes include: Cookie and Fall Product Sale training, CPR/First Aid Challenges/updates (any beyond the initial class), Basic Water Rescue, Small Craft Safety, advanced outdoor workshops, songs, games, ceremonies and arts & crafts. Also include any BLT II/Age-level training that is beyond the initial age-level taken as required for the pin. Non-Girl Scout classes (college, church, military, etc.) that are used in working directly with girls may also apply. Remember: you must use the skills learned in the class while working with the girls!

The candidate has met each of the following criteria:

- Yes No Is a registered Girl Scout adult member.
- Yes No Has successfully completed at least one year as a leader, co-leader, or assistant leader. (Must be a registered 01 or 02.)
- Yes No Has received the Leadership Development Pin (previously earned or being received simultaneously with the leaves).
- Yes No Has documented how each class improved his/her work with girls and has included this documentation with the nomination form for any classes other than Girl Scout classes.
- Yes No Has documented the qualified classes taken and the number of hours of each class and has attached this documentation to the nomination form. (Use back of form if more space is needed.)
