

Beasley Allen consistently recognizes and promotes women in the workplace. Their support staff includes full-time nurses, investigators, computer specialists, technologists, a public relations department and a comprehensive trial graphics department. Out of these staff, 162 are female. They have female attorneys in leadership positions all over the country in nationwide litigation. They have also promoted women to leadership position throughout their support staff. The Beasley Allen firm has consistently stood up for women's rights by fighting injustice through litigation for the last 35 years, it has also empowered women through offering employment opportunities and encouraging women leadership in various organizations. We are so grateful to call Beasley Allen our 2017 Workplace for Women!