A nomination form is completed and submitted to the council's recognition committee, along with a letter indicating how the nominee meets the criteria. Two endorsements by other individuals familiar with the nominee's service must be submitted via email to awards@girlscoutssa.org. The recognition committee reviews the nomination documentation then approves or denies it. The recognition committee sends notification of the decision to the council's board of directors for confirmation. Submit nomination form to awards@girlscoutssa.org no later than April 1.

Examples of Nominee

- At an event a troop leader noticed that the diversity of the girls did not match the diversity of the community. She talked with her council's staff members and found that they had identified a potential for membership increase among the Hispanic communities in the area. She partnered with the service-delivery team to create and implement recruitment strategies to reach both girls and adults and new ways of work to support new members. As a result, Hispanic girl membership rose by 14 percent and adult membership by 15 percent last year. While those members participated in series and camps, 78 percent of them participated in troops.
