Cookie Booth Etiquette

- You are guests when you set up a cookie booth at a business location and should be on your best behavior.
- Set up booth sale in the designated area. DO NOT block the entrance and follow the rules the business sets.
- Be identifiable as Girl Scouts. Girl Scout Membership Pin, uniform, or other Girl Scout clothing should be visible to customers.
- Only approach customers as they are leaving the business and have a good attitude, smile, and say thank you, even if a customer does not buy.
- Adults must be present at all times. Don't allow girls to wander around the location unchaperoned.
- Do not ask businesses for change.
- Bring your own table. Hang signage on your table, not on the businesses' property.
- RESPECT other troops' sale time. Don't start selling early, and don't stay after the allotted time. Resolve conflicts peacefully. DO NOT create a scene in front of a business!
- Do not eat during a booth sale (girls or adults).
- An adult is responsible for money at all times. An adult watches or assists as the girls handle cash. Keep the money box in a safe place, especially during loading and unloading of cookies. Make regular bank deposits and DO NOT keep large amounts of money in the money box!
- Make sure you count and write down the exact number of packages of each flavor before beginning a booth sale. Then count the exact amount of packages of each flavor after the booth sale is over.
- Clean up after booth sale and take ALL trash with you.
- Park away from the front of the business, and do not take up their best parking spaces.
- Do not use loud objects/devices to draw attention.
